Tour Program Summary

China is a land of history and refinement unparalleled in the world. Attentive visitors are immersed in a sea of visual and cultural experiences unlike any other they may have had elsewhere. Each geographic area in China teems with its own identity as an energetic variation on the great theme of Chinese civilization. You will be amazed at how regions differ vastly yet express similar values and ideas.

The focus of your tour is Hong Kong, one of the most visited cities in the world. Every year, millions of visitors’ flock or pass through this Special Administrative Region of China. Hong Kong, the Oriental Pearl, is simply amazing. As a Special Administrative Region of China. Hong Kong is one of the world's leading financial, banking and trading centers. Situated on the southeast coast of China, Hong Kong occupies an area of 1,104 square kilometers (about 426 square miles) and is made up of four parts: Hong Kong Island, Kowloon Peninsula, the New Territories and the Outlying Islands. On this food oriented tour you will visit a market to try popular street foods, take a cooking class to learn all about the ingredients that create unique Hong Kong flavor, and eat at your choice of some of the finest and most popular restaurants among locals (listed on the Recommended Restaurant Page).

Take a day trip to Macau, located on the southeast coast of China, which is also a special administrative region of the country. Being Asia's well-known gambling Mecca, Macau is a place to find the traditional Chinese culture while enjoying the exotic Portuguese buildings. Macau is a famous destination with prosperity and peace, fashion and history, as well as oriental and western cultures. The city claims to have produced the world's first fusion food: Macanese cuisine - A unique blend of both Chinese and Portuguese ingredients and cooking techniques, which is simply delicious.

Hong Kong cuisine is a blend of many different flavors from around the world, the main influences being Cantonese, European, (especially British) and Chinese dishes. Chinese influence primarily comes from Hakka, Teochew, Fujian and Shanghai. Japanese, Korean and Southeast Asian cuisines are also popular due to Hong Kong's past as a British colony and a long history of being an international port of commerce. From the roadside stalls to the most pristine restaurants, Hong Kong provides a seemingly unlimited variety of food and dining options in every class. Complex combinations and international gourmet expertise have given Hong Kong the reputable labels of "Gourmet Paradise" and "World's Fair of Food."
